

Roosevelt High School Program Majors

4301 13th Street NW Washington, DC 20011

• Main Line • (202) 576-6130 • www.theodorerooseveltdc.org

Culinary Arts

This major is for students interested in exploring the art of food preparation, cooking and presentation of food.

Major Courses Include:

- Culinary Arts I - III
- Internship

Entrepreneurship & Business Management

This major is for students interested in learning about the fundamental skills that are required to efficiently run or manage a business.

Major Courses Include:

- BUILD I
- BUILD II

JRTOC

(Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps)

This major is for students interested in leadership, developing an understanding of the military and national security and service to school and community.

Major Course Include:

- LET I - LET IV

Foreign Service & Diplomacy

This major is for students interested in learning about the federal government and foreign service.

Major Courses Include:

- Principles of Government and Public Administration
- Foreign Service and Diplomacy
 - National Security
 - Practicum in Local
- State & Federal Government (Internship)

General Studies

Students who select general studies will have the opportunity to take classes in several areas. Students who are undecided on a major should select this major.

Major Courses Include:

- Bioethics
- Global Perspectives
- Financial Literacy
 - Street Law
- Asian/African/Latin Studies
 - Bach to Rap
- Public Speaking
 - Yearbook
 - SAT Prep
 - Swimming

Performing Arts

This major is for students interested in developing their talent in choir, theatre, band and/or specific instruments.

Major Courses Include:

- Acting I
- Choir I - Choir IV
- Band I - Band IV
- Woodwind Ensemble
 - Brass Ensemble
 - Guitar Ensemble

Visual Arts

This major is for students who are interested in developing their talent in various art forms.

Major Courses include:

- Sculpture
- Painting & Drawing
- Design I & II
- Studio Art

NOTE:

- Dual Language applicants will also select a Major.
- Students are able to take Advance Placement Courses with any Major.
- Some Majors may require an additional screening process.